Farmers Are Given Time on Soil Bank

WASHINGTON, June 30—The Agriculture Department has given farmers more time to remove crops from land in order to qualify for payments under the soil bank acreage reserve program.

The department wired all state committees directing them to fix no deadline earlier than July 15 for removing crops. Previously the state committees had been empowered to fix a deadline as early as June 30.

State committees still may fix deadlines later than July 15, but not earlier.

"Farmers just didn't have enough time," a department official said in explaining the later deadline.

Farmers may qualify land for participation on the acreage reserve by plowing under, clipping, moving or otherwise removing crops from the land.

The extended deadline applies not only to the six basic crops—corn, wheat, cotton, tobacco, rice and peanuts—but to other crops, such as oats, which farmers might want to remove to qualify the acreage for soil bank payments.

WINS GOLF TOURNEY

Mrs. Don Ellis, president of the Indianapolis Women's Golf Association, presided over contestants in the annual championship tournament of the Old Ladies' Golf Association of Indiana in Lafayette Friday when she shot an 82 at the Elks Country Club to repeat her victory of 1955.

Mrs. Ellis established a new scoring record for this event in carding 41-41 against par 38-38-76. She set the previous mark of 83 a year ago in topping the field on her home course, the Country Club of Indianapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis formerly made their home in Greencastle.

HERE AND THERE

Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Sandy were vacationing in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Ann Drew and Aura May Durham left for Wilton, Maine, to spend the summer at Camp Kinewatha.

Virginia Arnold underwent a tonsil operation at the county hospital.

Harold Duncan was in Paris, Illinois.

IN THE GOOD OLD DAYS

CLASS OF '77—Of 23 young men who recently stepped across the threshold of life from an Eastern college, 11 are clerking in auction stores at $14 a month, one is running a fish boat, two are learning the house painting trade, and one starved to death before he was out of college a week." (1877)

COMMUNISTS—"A division and equalization of the wealth of the country among all the people of the country is what the Communists are in favor of. That is about what the ordinary class of burglars and thieves are in favor of. Having nothing of their own, and being too lazy or too vagabondish to go to work to earn an honest living for themselves, they want to have a first-rate time at other people's expense. The Communist claims to be a philosopher and a reformer, but he is in fact nothing but a common loafer, and his doctrine is a self-confession that his instincts are thievish and barbarous." (1887)

WHIPPING-POST—"There is talk in New York of the revival of the whipping-post, and it is surprising to find how many of the leading men of the city favor its restoration. Their views have been solicited by the interviewers of the TIMES, and they express themselves almost uniformly for the re-establishment of that form of punishment for minor offenses." (1877)

GREENCASTLE NEWS—"Charlie Stevenson has gone to Portland Mills to clerk in the New York store there—Emily Beauchamp's prospective wife can bless him in six languages.—Burley and Webb furnished 500 loaves of bread and 1,000 cakes for the Baptist Association now in progress in Jefferson township." (1877)

MANHATTAN TEACHER—"Miss Florence Fellows is trying for the school here this winter. Our trustee only pays $1.60 per day this year to teachers." (1877)

PEEPING TOM—"Citizens of the West End complain that their families are disturbed and frightened of evenings by a 'Peeping Tom,' who sometimes goes so far as to try and gain admittance to their houses. This fellow is known, and at least one shot-gun has been put in readiness for him." (1877)

HIGHLY PAID TEACHER—"Miss Aggie Fisher will go to Rockport next week to teach in the public schools of that place under Prof. O. H. Smith. Her salary is $50 per month. This is more than is usually paid to those just entering upon the profession of teaching." (1877)

PRAIRIE CHICKENS—"James A. Curtis, H. H. Hillis and the O'Hairs from Brick Chapel, when their families, went to Illinois last week to attend a reunion of the O'Hair family. They took their shot guns along to kill prairie chickens, but the prairie chickens were not found in great numbers." (1877)

METHODIST HAVE MONEY—"Asbury opened yesterday with a large attendance. The great want of the Institution is money to employ professors and furnish room. Were this want supplied the students would number 1,000 instead of 500, Indiana Methodism can supply the money, and it ought to be done. There is a fine opportunity here for benevolent wealthy gentlemen who wish to benefit the young men and women of the West. (1877.)

CATTLE EXPORTED—"Ten carloads of beef cattle were shipped from this county yesterday to England. They were fed by A. M. Lockridge and William Bridges, who sold them at 5½ cents. They were re-sold to Woods Brothers, of Chicago, the shippers, for six cents. These cattle will make one ship-load." (1877)

ACCIDENT ON U. S. 36 KILLS MUNCIE MAN

WOMAN CRITICALLY INJURED
IN HEADON CRASH
FRIDAY P. M.

A Muncie man was killed and a woman was critically injured in the headon crash of two automobiles at 5:45 p. m. Friday almost in front of the McGaughey home just east of road 43 on road 36.

Dead of a crushed chest was Charles W. Harris, 49, Route Five, Muncie.

Listed as in a critical condition at the Putnam county hospital Saturday morning was Mrs. Bessie J. Lucy, 59, also of Muncie, who was riding with Harris.

Edward Waitro, an airman stationed at the Rockville Air Force Base, also riding with Harris, escaped with slight injuries. He was treated at the hospital and then released.

State police reported that Harris was driving his 1956 Chevrolet east on 36, James Shalley, 18, of Russellville, was driving his car west on 36 and police said the youth apparently dozed at the wheel and crossed into the eastbound lane causing the headon collision. Shalley escaped with only minor injuries.

Harris made a desperate attempt to avoid the collision by pulling his car half way off the pavement, Trooper Brackney reported, before the crash. Although Harris was headed east on 36, when the car stopped, it was turned completely around and was headed west in the ditch on the south side of the pavement.

The body of Mr. Harris was taken to the Sands Funeral Home in Bainbridge after being extricated from the wreckage of his automobile.

State Troopers Brackney and Williams investigated the accident.

President Goes To Gettysburg

WASHINGTON, June 30.—(UP)—President Eisenhower left the hospital early today to begin a sunshine-and-air convalescence at his Gettysburg, Pa., farm where he is expected to determine his second term intentions.

Mr. Eisenhower, accompanied by his wife, planned to leave Walter Reed Army Hospital about 8:30 a. m., EDT, for the 89-mile drive to Gettysburg. The farm will be "home" to the Eisenhowers for at least two weeks.

Advance White House word was that the President would "not make a statement" while he recovers briefly on the hospital steps for photographers before getting into his limousine.

Republican party leaders to a man are confident the President will run again. But the President himself hasn't said so since his June 9 operation. The best guess is that Mr. Eisenhower will test himself during his stay at the farm and then make his decision public. There have been some predictions the decision would be forthcoming between July 4-15.

D-Day At Hand In Steel Talks

NEW YORK, June 30.—(UP)—This is D-day in the dramatic steel wage talks that will profoundly affect the lives of every American.

The final decision reached today by negotiators for the United Steelworkers of America and the industry's "big three" producers will determine whether it is "war or peace" in the steel industry.

On this vital decision hinges the economic health of America, the jobs of countless millions of Americans in various industries dependent on steel.

If the four-man negotiating teams for union and management fail to hammer out a new contract for 650,000 steelworkers by midnight tonight, the worst steel strike in history will be underway.

CAR IN WHICH MUNCIE MAN DIED LATE FRIDAY ON ROAD 36

Coroner Homer Sands of Bainbridge, wearing a hat, is shown as he and others took the body of Charles W. Harris from the wrecked auto near the home of Lyle McGaughey on road 36 east of 43 early Friday evening. Harris was killed when his car collided head on with another one.

MISS MATHERS ACCEPTS POSITION IN MARYLAND

The many friends of Miss Audrey June Mathers, popular pharmacist at Fleenor's Drug Store, will regret to learn that she will leave the end of July to make her future home in Cambridge, Maryland, where she has accepted a position with a pharmacy in that city. Miss Mathers, a Butler University graduate, came to Greencastle a little over three years ago.

Audrey Fleenor announced today that John Calvin Foulitz will be associated with him as a pharmacist at Fleenor's. Mr. Foulitz has already assumed this position with Fleenor's and plans to bring Mrs. Foulitz and their young son and daughter to Greencastle to make their home as soon as a home is procured. GROVELAND O.E.S. OBSERVES 50TH ANNIVERSARY

TWO FIFTY YEAR MEMBERS ARE HONORED DURING CELEBRATION

Groveland Lodge No. 330 Order of Eastern Star observed its fiftieth anniversary Friday evening and at the same time honored two fifty year members of the chapter. They were Mrs. Prudence Evens and Oscar Cramer, both of Groveland.

Among the interested visitors at Friday evening's observance which more than taxed the capacity of the Masonic Hall, was Mrs. Dove Stewart Wright, also a fifty year member, having received her 50 year pin Thursday evening. She is now a member of the Greencastle Chapter, but lives in Phoenix, Arizona. She was Matron of the Groveland Chapter in 1908. A huge birthday cake was in the center of the floor Friday evening when the observance was held.

The women officers of the Chapter all wore gold colored gowns in recognition of the Golden Anniversary of the founding of the Chapter. The invocation was given by the Rev. Ira Stout. Mrs. Ruth McVey welcomed the visitors at the meeting which was an open one.

Franklin Ramsey, Worthy Patron of the Chapter, paid a tribute to the Masons of Groveland Lodge and William McNeiff gave the response. Mrs. Jessie Bierce of Indianapolis, read a history of the Groveland Chapter's first twenty-five years. It was an interesting bit of past history in that community.

Otto W. Cox presented the 50 year pins to Mrs. Evens and Mr. Cramer, and later spoke concerning the observance.

The Chapter members have worked long and hard on the observance and their efforts were fully rewarded by the splendid attendance and manner in which the celebration moved along during the evening.

Scheele Resigns U.S. Health Post

WASHINGTON, June 30 (UP)—Dr. Leonard A. Scheele, veteran head of the United States Public Health Service and guiding light of the Salk vaccine program, unexpectedly resigned yesterday less than three months after being sworn in for his third term.

President Eisenhower accepted the resignation of the 48-year-old surgeon general with the "deepest regret."

There had been no public intimation that Scheele, a native of Fort Wayne, Ind., who had spent all of his professional life in the health service was planning to quit. In his letter of resignation, Scheele said merely found it necessary to provide "more properly" for the future security of his family.

Scheele became head of the health service in 1948. He played a prominent role last year in the mix-up over the polio vaccine. When it appeared safety standards were inadequate, Scheele stopped all production until still new Federal production rules could be drafted. He also helped devise the nation-wide voluntary distribution system which now has the vaccine program working smoothly.

In accepting Scheele's resignation, effective Aug. 1, Mr. Eisenhower paid tribute to his "outstanding contribution to the cause of better health" during his 23 years of government service.

REPUBLICANS PICK HANDLEY FOR GOVERNOR

NOMINATED ON SECOND
BALLOT BY DELEGATES
AT CONVENTION

INDIANAPOLIS, June 30.—Lt. Governor Harold Handley won the Republican gubernatorial nomination in Friday's state convention on the second ballot, defeating four other candidates and Gov. Craig for party leadership in Indiana.

Handley, standard-bearer of the anti-Craig GOP faction master-minded by U. S. Sen. William E. Jenner, swept to a decisive 1,430 second ballot total after showing a commanding lead on the first vote.

Craig's favorite among the four other candidates, State Revenue Commissioner Frank T. Millis, trailed Handley on the first ballot with 560 to Handley's 986. The Millis-Craig floor generals dropped Millis and switched to Frank H. Sparks of Crawfordville between the ballots but it was no use.

Former Mayor John A. Scott of South Bend released his delegates and most of them swung to Handley. The gain Sparks made from the switch of support was negligible as the Handley bandwagon began to roll.

Sen. Homer E. Capehart was renominated overwhelmingly over token opposition from George B. Huff, Indianapolis public relations man, 1,669 to 159. Secretary of State Crawford F. Parker thumped two opponents with a 1,418 total for lieutenant governor.

The Capehart-Handley-Parker ticket will oppose a Democratic ticket chosen Tuesday with ex-Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard of Camden for senator; Mayor Ralph Tucker of Terre Haute for governor, and Bartel Zandstra of Highland, former Lake County clerk lieutenant governor.

The state convention was a clear-cut factional showdown between Jenner and Craig forces and the Jenner victory was complete.

Craig left the State Fairgrounds Coliseum, scene of the convention, almost unnoticed. He later issued this brief statement:

"The convention has spoken. I pledge my wholehearted support to the election of the entire state ticket."

The outcome put Handley, Jenner and National Committeeman Ralph F. Gates in the saddle in the Indiana Republican organization, but they backed off from predicting an ouster of State Chairman Alvin C. Cast of Kentland at the next state committee meeting July 16.

Cast, although identified with the Craig faction, has steered a neutral course in the party's bitter factional fighting. Handley never has indicated a desire to replace him.

Whether Cast stays or not it was evident that Handley, Gates and Jenner will call the shots on state GOP policy at least through the fall campaign.

The result was a heavy blow to any hopes Craig may have harbored of getting a high federal appointment when his term of office ends next January. And it dimmed the possibility of his trying to wrest away Jenner's Senate seat in 1958, when Jenner's term ends.

ANNIVERSARIES

World Of Religion

Eugene Clayton Calhoun, Jr., is the newly-elected president of Paline College, noted missionary institution in Augusta, Georgia. He succeeded the retiring president, Dr. Edmund C. Peters, on June 15. A native of Douglas, Georgia, the new president is the son of Eugene Clayton Calhoun, Sr. and Gussie Barnes Calhoun, of Perry, Florida. A former missionary to China, Dr. Calhoun was evacuated from that country in 1940 and since that time has held pastorates in Florida and North Carolina. At the time of his election, he was pastor of Riverside Methodist Church, Miami, Florida.

The liberation of South Korea from "foreign domination" ten years ago gave a "tremendous impetus" to the education of women in that land, according to Miss Unsook Saw, dean of students at Ewha Woman's University, Seoul. "With the liberation has come the idea of democracy," she says, "and the principle of the dignity of human individuals, not only of men but of women as well. Even though it was originally a political affair, it has become a social and moral revolution, and has ushered in a period of renaissance for Korean womanhood. Emerging from a state of social bondage, the Korean woman has become a human being before she is a woman, a wife, a mother."

The Woman's Division of Christian Service, Board of Missions of the Methodist Church, is planning for the establishment of a hospital and a training center for nurses near Wonju, Korea. This is the center of a great industrial section, southeast of Seoul, where at the present time there is little or no medical service for hundreds of thousands of people. The Division hopes this year to begin the erection of a 120-bed hospital, and to recruit medical and nursing personnel for the project.

The Tulsa (Oklahoma) District of the Methodist Church organized a "One Thousand Club" in 1952. This club is composed of 1,000 memberships. An individual may take as many memberships as he feels capable of paying and each membership is responsible for the payment of $10 whenever called upon—a maximum of $30 any given year and a maximum of $70 in four years. Funds raised by this program have been used for the purpose of a building site for a new church or in the building of a church. Churches organized as a result in Tulsa District during the years 1953-1955 are: 1953—J. H. Ball Memorial Church; 1954—Christ Methodist Church, St. John Methodist Church; 1955—East Side Methodist Church.

In a message to all Christians, the seven presidents of the World Council of Churches said:

in part: "We believe the churches, acknowledging the need of Christians themselves to repent, should say to the nations: 'Repent. Your conflicts must be resolved by reason, not by violence. Violence has now reached such a pitch that when once unleashed it is beyond human control; and unless wars can be made to cease all nations will perish.' . . . We believe the churches should say to the nations that it is neither by words of anger, nor by insistence on rights, that settlements can be achieved, but by the spreading of justice, by combining to meet one another's needs, and by relying for our salvation upon the grace and mercy of God . . . We believe that the churches should remind the nations, with a passion greater than ever before, that the whole world cries out for peace, that they are all members of one family, and that the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ is the Father of all."

"New Eyes For The Needy,"

Inc." is sponsored by the Short Hills (New Jersey) Junior Service League; the organization is endorsed by the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness and the Essex County (N. J.) Medical Society. Short Hills League members sort the glasses they receive through the mail from throughout the nation. Sun glasses, simple magnifiers, near-sighted and cataract lenses are distributed to charitable groups, hospitals, and clinics. Metal frames and gold and silver scrap are sent to a refinery to be melted down and sold. The money from the melted scrap is used to pay for new prescription glasses. Sorting of the glasses is done in the homes of league members or in donated space. The organization then sends glasses, on request, through mission channels to various parts of the world.

MAY CUT TROOPS

LONDON, June 30.—(UP)—Britain may slash its troop strength in West Germany because the Bonn government will pay only a little more than half the support cost, informed sources said today.

The problem would have to be taken up with other members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization first.

The troop slash appeared to be the only way Prime Minister Anthony Eden's government now could make good on its promises to cut defense expenses this year.

With almost methodical regularity we hear or read of startling new discoveries in medicine. The pace of progress in research has been greatly accelerated. Hundreds of trained people are devoting their lives to organized research where there was but one a few years ago. As soon as the value of a new drug has been established, it is made available to the medical profession. A chronic condition from which you have been suffering may yield to a new treatment today. It is wiser than ever before to see your physician regularly once or twice a year. We take pride in maintaining complete stocks of the newer medicinal agents, ready to serve you on the order of your physician.

World Of Religion

Eugene Clayton Calhoun, Jr., is the newly-elected president of Paine College, noted missionary institution in Augusta, Georgia. He succeeded the retiring president, Dr. Edmund C. Peters, on June 15. A native of Douglas, Georgia, the new president is the son of Eugene Clayton Calhoun, Sr. and Gussie Barnes Calhoun, of Perry, Florida. A former missionary to China, Dr. Calhoun was evacuated from that country in 1940 and since that time has held pastorates in Florida and North Carolina. At the time of his election, he was pastor of the Riverside Methodist Church, Miami, Florida.

The liberation of South Korea from "foreign domination" ten years ago gave a "tremendous impetus" to the education of women in that land, according to Miss Unsook Saw, dean of students at Ewha Woman's University, Seoul. "With the liberation has come the idea of democracy," she says, "and the principle of the dignity of human individuals, not only of men but of women as well. Even though it was originally a political affair, it has become a social and moral revolution, and has ushered in a period of renaissance for Korean womanhood. Emerging from a state of social bondage, the Korean woman has become a human being before she is a woman, a wife, a mother."

The Woman's Division of Christian Service, Board of Missions of the Methodist Church, is planning for the establishment of a hospital and a training center for nurses near Wonju, Korea. This is the center of a great industrial section, southeast of Seoul, where at the present time there is little or no medical service for hundreds of thousands of people. The Division hopes this year to begin the erection of a 120-bed hospital, and to recruit medical and nursing personnel for the project.

The Tulsa (Oklahoma) District of the Methodist Church organized a "One Thousand Club" in 1952. This club is composed of 1,000 memberships. An individual may take as many memberships as he feels capable of paying and each membership is responsible for the payment of $10 whenever called upon—a maximum of $30 any given year and a maximum of $70 in four years. Funds raised by this program have been used for the purpose of a building site for a new church or in the building of a church. Churches organized as a result in Tulsa District during the years 1953-1955 are: 1953—J. H. Ball Memorial Church; 1954—Christ Methodist Church, St. John Methodist Church; 1955—East Side Methodist Church.

In a message to all Christians, the seven presidents of the World Council of Churches said:

This Wednesday, July 4th, is a great day in the history of our country. It is too bad that the average American thinks so little about it. It is likewise a great day in the history of this Communion. For example, two-thirds of the signers of the Declaration of Independence were churchmen; likewise were two-thirds of the signers of the Constitution. The signal lanterns for Paul Revere were hung in Christ Episcopal Church in Boston. The first clergyman to offer prayer in congress and its first regular chaplain were Episcopalians. It is therefore most fitting and proper that we should assemble ourselves in the church to thank God for His wonderful benefits to all men in this country, and to ask His guidance for our nation's leaders in the days that lie ahead. The people of this community are of course invited to share in this service.

Takeout Double Advantages For Outweight Disadvantages
My mail indicates that many players consider the takeout double the most baffling department of the game. I agree that it is the most complex of all "bids." How much strength do you need to make such a double? What do you do when partner doubles and the next hand bids or redoubles?

How do you distinguish a takeout double from a penalty double? Let's look into the situation in the next few columns and see what makes the takeout double tick—or backfire, as the case may be.

MAIN REASONS

Here are the principal reasons why the takeout double and the responses thereto are often difficult to handle. First, the simple fact that you have to double for a takeout means your opponents have got the jump on you by opening the bidding.

They have already "announced" a possible line of defense to be used if your side plays the hand. And, having exchanged some information at the start, they are in a position to crowd the bidding so you may never find your right spot.

In today's hand, for example, Mr. Masters had to lose a diamond and three spades for down one, while 10 tricks were readily available at a contract of four hearts.

Nobody made any bidding errors and yet hearts were not even mentioned. There wasn't time. Of course, four hearts might not have been reached with Mr. Abel as the opening bidder, although it would have been more likely that way.

MAKE BID SPEAK

A good player likes to make each bid tell something about two features of his hand—how much high card strength he holds and where that strength is.

In today's deal Mr. Abel would like to have said, "I have a good hand, including a five-card heart suit," but unfortunately that wouldn't have been legal. A takeout double says only that the doubler has a good hand. It doesn't tell what his best suit is.

And yet the advantages of the takeout double far outweigh its disadvantages. In the next few days I want to suggest ways to use it for your maximum profit.

Windows are easier to clean if a rag moistened with glycerine is used on the dirty panes.

PICTURE OF THE MONTH

THE LAND OF THE FREE

One of the first landmarks the European traveler sees as he approaches this country is Bartholdi's famous Statue of Liberty.

The artist here has deftly drawn a broken chain across the background of freedom's holy light, signifying that oppression and human slavery cannot exist in a land of free people.

But freedom involves much more than an unshackled body and the possession of civil and political rights. One may possess all these and still be a slave to his own weaknesses.

True freedom encompasses the mind and soul of man as well as his body and his political relations. Men are enslaved by vicious habits, by their ignorance, prejudice, selfishness and hate.

Religion is the mother of freedom, and the Church has been its chief and most constant exponent. Jesus said, "The truth shall make you free," and the truth is embodied in the Holy Scriptures.

No chains can fetter the soul of the man who dwells in the light of God's freedom.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Anglo-U. S. Differences
Show In Vacation Reading
By Margaret Latrobe
Traveling? I don't care about your clothes and fishing gear. What books you taking along to read?

Alec Waugh ("Island in the Sun") and Somerset Maugham (short story dean) are writers who travel, or travelers who write. And a better head than mine must decide which. They do both superbly. Both are hard work, even though Waugh refers to travel as a "holiday."

Each of these gentlemen travels with the customary dinner jacket, plus odds and ends of less noteworthy haberdashery. But the most important luggage item is—books. Maugham has said he stows a ton of books in a big canvas bag which is hoisted aboard ship under his anxious eye. Without his books the trip would collapse. Mr. Waugh, citing his idol Maugham, recently deplored the fact that modern air travel precludes such sizeable hard-cover supplies accompanying one on a journey.

Sixty-six pounds of luggage is considered by airlines as quite enough nonsense for international flights. And if you think otherwise, bring your checkbook to back up your opinions. With four or five books the size of "Andersonville" and "Marjorie Morningstar" going along, you are beat.

The difference in travelers like these two and ourselves interests me. We take "vacations"—not holidays. We do not load up the valises with reading material. I wouldn't care to say this is an English trait as compared to an American one, but you go ahead and say it if you wish. Nor would I venture so far as suggesting that it is a writer's trait as against a non-professional voyager.

It is probably just a bona fide traveler's trait as opposed to a one-shot vacationer's.

Most of us travel so little we are ga-ga at sights along the way. How could we give ourselves to reading when there are new people to stare at, games on deck to be played, old cathedrals to gaze at, deserts to be driven across by night, mountains to be climbed, lakes to be sailed, restaurants to be visited?

Reading, to us, is an anodyne (and a delightful one) to be partook of amid surroundings familiar. Not on vacation, with the excitement and delights of reality beating against our senses. Reading is for long quiet evenings (in bed, preferably) before a fire, for long afternoons on the side porch or for just any old time when you are free to leave home territory in imagination. But not on vacation, when you leave home in actuality.

If I'm traveling, I'm looking and listening and talking and drinking and eating and dancing and raising all the uh, roof within bounds of decorous hijinks. Reading, no. I can't be two places at once like these writers say they can. To read I must take yet another journey with the author and his absorbing corps of characters. To go on two trips at once confuses me. I never will forgive myself for taking "Rebecca" on a boat trip. Never budged from the cabin until the book was finished, and though I read like lightning I missed the masquerade ball and everything! I could have won first prize just dressed as usual, hang it!
